“ I worked with Kathy at the Veterans Home for two years. She was an awesome lady to work with. I ran into her recently at WalMart in Warsaw. She had been hunting with her favorite veteran at the dam. She saw me first and hollered at me. We hugged and caught up on life. I am so sorry for your loss.

“ Although I didnt know Kathy, I did have the absolute pleasure of spending a lot of time with her oldest daughter. She was one of my best friends my junior and senior year in high school and even became a room mate in college. She is one of the sweetest, most genuine, heartfelt people I have ever known. Her love for her family and the fight she put up to be a constant part of the lives of a brother and sister who she loves dearly are absolutely admirable. She managed to move herself up into a good position with her job, marry her high school sweetheart, build their dream home, and become a mommy to an awesome little boy that she is obviously smitten over. I couldn't have asked for a better friend.

It was my time spent with Kristan that tells me that Kathy had to have been a great woman to have raised such a person.

Prayers from my family to yours for peace in your hearts in this hard time and I will be there for you Thursday Kristan to show my support.

All my love, Sarah Lockridge.

“ I wanted to be there so badly. I just found out when the visitation is.

Kathy was one of my kids. She and her sister Patty took it on themselves to make sure my classroom was organized and my desk was neat. That was a big task! I always looked forward to their class period.

Later Kathy became the school nurse "Nursie" as my trap team called her. She helped keep the trap team running smoothly of course.

Kathy was not only a great help but I always felt she had my back. She felt like a daughter more than a student.

I hope her children and grandchild will remember how sweet her smile was. I hope they always remember how much she loved them.

How much? She threw eye daggers at me when I taught Logan how to "pick a winner".

She gave me a "thank you" look when I was trying to share life perspective to Kristen as she went through the teens. Megan was just too much like her mother for me to do anything but laugh with and enjoy.

It's been a rough week because of her loss. One of the things I learned in 34 years of teaching was how hard it is to lose a student. They become your kid and not just a name on a roster.

I also learned that the legacy we leave is the smile that comes to the face of those who remember us. I will always remember her and smile.

I pray peace to your family.

Love
