“ I remember my Uncle Less very well. My grandpa Lee Farris (one of his brothers), my grandma Helen ,and I , would go visit him and Aunt Ann, and they came to visit as well. Great memories I will cherish. I loved the tricks their dogs would do . so sorry this fine man passed away. Our condolences and prayers.

“ I'm thankful for grandfathers like him who cared for their grandchildren as their own, during their free time in retirement. I'm thankful for the religious foundation that was established in my sister and I while under their care. I'm thankful for the companionship he gave to my sweet grandma in her old age, and caring for her family when things must have seemed hopeless when she lost her first husband in a tragic accident at the young age of 34. I'm thankful for all I've learned about gardening, bowling, mowing, trying to stay healthy, serving our country, and most of all, the chance that we all are given to follow Jesus Christ, no matter our past, and the repentance and forgiveness he allows us freely.
