“ Betty was my neighbor, my fellow church member, but most of all a close friend and mentor. She was one of the finest Christian women I have ever known. She inspired me, she listened to me, and she helped me in any way she could. We have many memories, and I know that God put her into my life. My heart goes out to all of her wonderful family members and I will be praying for you all! Everyone in Heaven is greatly rejoicing today!!

“ It was an honor and a blessing to know Betty. You only needed to talk to Betty for just a brief moment to know she was a true woman of God who didn't just talk the talk but walked the walk. I have such fond memories of working together with Betty, in Vacation Bible School at Enon Baptist Church. I know Betty loved her family dearly and I will be keeping them all in my prayers at this time of great loss. She will be so missed by all.
