We just wanted to let you know you are in our thoughts & prayers. I personally did not have a chance to meet Carol, but do know she became a cherished friend to Mom in just a short time. I know that Mom really enjoyed their visits & described Carol as a very intelligent & caring person. They enjoyed talking recipes, canning, playing various games, even ones Mom didn't know how to play but said that Carol was determined to teach her. Carol was a great source of knowledge & comfort to Mom when Dad passed away, they enjoyed laughs, stories & I am sure shed some tears together & for this I am eternally grateful. It is often said that the Lord puts you in places your meant to be even if we don't always know why. I know in my heart, the Lord brought her here for you to love & care for her when she most needed it, but also to help Mom along her recent journey as well.

I know you trust in the lord, continue that & he will give you comfort cherish the memories & hold them dear to your heart.

All our love & prayers
