“ Fond memories of the times when our families got together, whether at our farm or your Grandview home. Buford really cherished his friend, Charlie. His smile and that little laugh was so Charlie. I remember when I was 13, that I spent a week at your house, babysitting the "boys" while Charlie and Doris were at work. This was a shock, but so know that the men are back together and waiting for us to join them in heaven to eternally worship God together. God is our refuge and our strength. Memories are our way to honor Charlie now. Love to you all !!!
