

Deloris June Thomason

June 22, 1938 - April 29, 2018

Deloris Thomason, 79, Holden, Missouri, passed away April 29, 2018 surrounded by her family. Deloris was born June 22, 1938 to Leonard Aldridge and Beatrice (Carrell) Aldridge in Latour, Missouri. She graduated from Holden High School and married Glenn Thomason March 1, 1958 and they had one son, Brian who preceded her in death September 2009. Deloris worked as a book keeper for Allis Chambers and Gilcrest Equipment Company. Deloris loved working in the garden and taking care of her plants and flowers, but her real passion was Genealogy. She spent many hours researching her family history and spent a lot of time at different court houses collecting documentation to confirm what she had researched. She also loved her time she spent with her son Brian in the Archery Club and the competitions they attended. She always said that God gave her Glenn to teach her patience.

Deloris was also preceded in death by her brother Leonard Aldridge and two sisters, Ophelia Dimare, Blanche Dimare.

She is survived by her husband Glenn, of the home; one niece Dixie Peoples, and many other nieces and nephews.

Memorial contributions can be made in memory of Deloris Thomason to Bear Creek Cemetery
