In 1966, the family moved from Des Moines to Anderson, Missouri, where Annetta later completed her education and earned her GED. In 1973, she made Kingsville, Missouri her permanent home. In 1979, Diann and Tommie purchased a farm in Kingsville, where they raised longhorn cattle, chickens, horses, and pigs. She embraced farm life wholeheartedly and especially enjoyed riding horses and caring for the animals. In 1983, they built their family home, later adding a shop in 1990.

During the 1990s, Diann worked as a real estate agent. After retirement, she and her husband owned and operated QNR Bargains Thrift Store.

Diann had a creative spirit and found joy in writing poetry and drawing. She was a devoted member of Kingsville Baptist Church, where she faithfully taught Bible Study and Sunday School. Her strong faith, outgoing personality, and generous heart left a lasting impression on everyone who knew her.

She is survived by her son, Tommie Lindsay Jr. and wife Adeline; her daughter, Cheri Lancaster; her nephew, Shawn Lindsay and wife Dana; as well as many grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

“ Diann was my friend. I loved that woman from the first time I met her. She was in the hospital due to a fall at church. I work at the hospital We were friends instantly. I went to church with her then she got me to go to Sunday school. Loved every minute of it. Then when she went to the nursing home I would go see her after church. When I would leave we hugged each other and asked me to pray. I will miss her but I'm still going to pray with her I hope she hears it. I love you Diann. Your with Jesus now how wonderful I will see you again one day 💕🙏💕
