“ Passing by your house on our way to the lake won't ever be the same, uncle Don. My most impressionable memory was falling through the ice on your pond when I was a little girl when visiting with my grandma & grandpa. I'm glad we were able to spend a brief moment with you this summer & you were able to meet my daughter.

Words may not suffice to express the heartfelt sorrow that we all feel for Don's passing. Please accept our condolences and we will include all of the extended Miller family & friends in our daily prayers.

“ I was saddened to hear the news of your passing this morning. I'll forever cherish the few times we spent together before you left us - especially our trip to Warrensburg 😊. You'll never be forgotten. You can rest now Pa.
Sincerely, Cynthia
