

Faye Louise LaVassor

November 27, 1982 - November 30, 2025

Faye Louise LaVassor, age 43, passed away peacefully on Sunday, November 30, 2025, at Fitzgibbons Hospital in Marshall, Missouri. She was born on Saturday, November 27, 1982, in Green Bay, Wisconsin, to Richard Thomas LaVassor and Deanna Marie Kalebic.

In 1997, Faye and her family moved from Green Bay to Belton, Missouri. She graduated from Belton High School in 2001. Following high school, she lived in Marshall for several years before settling in Holden, Missouri. Faye was a proud and devoted mother to her son, Austin Wayne Johnson, and her daughter, Autumn Nicole Johnson.

Throughout her life, Faye worked as a custodian for various cleaning companies. She was a loyal Green Bay Packers fan and also cheered for the Kansas City Chiefs. She attended Covenant Church of Holden and found joy in reading—rarely seen without a book in hand. More than anything, Faye treasured time spent with her family.

Faye was preceded in death by her father, Richard LaVassor; paternal aunt, Betty and paternal uncle, Bobby; both her maternal and paternal grandparents.

She is survived by her mother, Deanna Kalebic; her stepfather, Dale Perkins; her children, Austin Johnson and Autumn Johnson; and her brothers, Paul LaVassor, Benjamin Brien, and Richard LaVassor Jr.

A Celebration of Life will be held on Tuesday, December 9, 2025, at 11:00 a.m. at Covenant Church of Holden, 298 SW MO-131, Holden, Missouri, with Pastor Michael Wakeman officiating.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggests memorial contributions be made directly to the family.

Funeral arrangements entrusted into the care of Campbell-Cast Funeral Home, a Stewart Family Company, and online condolences may be made to the family at www.castfuneralhome.com

“ Faye was such an amazing person. She loved my girls like her own. We will forever be grateful for the role she played in our life. She was always a call away when I needed her. Thats if she heard her phone anyways 😭 Party hard up there! And keep an eye on all of still here!

DI

I met Faye through my friendship with her mother, Dee, twenty years ago. I enjoyed talking to Faye as much as I did her Mom. Faye seemed always happy and easy going. I had many conversations with her while waiting for her Mom to come to the phone. All of her family was the love of her life. I take comfort in knowing I will see her again in heaven.
