“ Besides being a great Foreman, Ray truly cared about those individuals that worked for him. They all worked hard for Ray and respected him because he first extended respect to them. As a young "greenhorn" in management in 1977, Ray and Dale Corkran took me under their wings and generously shared their years of insight and wisdom in how to work with people and showed me what "servant leaders" were all about. Ray will sorely be missed but always remembered until we meet again at one of Heaven's fishing holes. With honor and respect, Jerry Call ”
