“ My family lived across the street from Glen, Darlene, Sheri, and Debbie. I remember that Glen was early to bed and early to rise due to his job. During the summer he would put up a swimming pool in the garage. The neighborhood kids spent many a hot day cooling off in that pool!! Glen was the original neighborhood watch. I knew all was ok when I could see him on his porch. We had a good childhood because of our neighborhood parents. I really wish things were more like that today.
