“ JR was my brother-in-law. I remember how funny he was. He seemed to always be happy. When we would have family gatherings, he always spoke of the wonderful food and bragged how he knew this was going to be a buffet of great food, that his wife's sisters sure knew how to cook. He loved to play bingo. He and Vickie would come together at the Windsor Bingo and he was so gracious. He was such a good guy. We loved talking with him, a lot of something about nothing and a lot of conversations about important things. We will miss you and remember you and your kindness. Thank you for being a good dad, grandpa, and wonderful husband to my sister.

Love,
Trudy and Terry
