Jimmy Rex McGlathery

November, 24 1958 - March 10, 2025

Jimmy McGlathery of Holden, 66, surrounded by his family, passed away peacefully on March 10th, 2025. There will be a celebration of his life on March 28th at 7 p.m. at Lyric Coffee House 117 W. 2nd St. in Holden, Missouri.

Jimmy was born November 24, 1958, to Floyd and Mary McGlathery in Kansas City, Missouri. Preceding him in death were his parents Floyd and Mary McGlathery and his in-laws Darrell and Helen Turner. He married his high school sweetheart, Jennifer (Turner) in 1977. Jimmy loved God and never missed an opportunity to share him with those he met. When he wasn't spending time with his family, he was working his many jobs, including driving a bus for a couple school districts, locating utilities for SM&P, security for Centerpoint Hospital, and various driving and construction jobs through the years. Jim

also Pastored 3 churches at various times, Southside Church of God in Grandview,

Missouri, Rose of Sharon Church of God in St. Joseph, Missouri, and Compassionate

Heart Ministries in Independence, Missouri. He also went on to earn his Masters Degree in Christian Counseling and helped many people through that ministry.

Jimmy is survived by his loving wife, Jennifer McGlathery, of 47, years in Holden, Missouri. Jimmy also leaves behind two daughters, Tanna Johnson (Mike) of Holden,

Missouri and Rachael Shepherd (Jason) of Nixa, Missouri; and a sister Lisea Morris

(Charles) of Raymore, Missouri; Eight grandchildren D'Angelo, Tanner, Zakk, Morgan,

Samantha, Anthony, Mia, and Noah; and two nephews Charles and Samuel.

The family would like to thank the special caregivers who provided loving care for

Jimmy in his final days, you are appreciated beyond words.
