

Kevin Scott Baker

December 16, 1995 - August 8, 2017

Kevin Scott Baker, 21, Holden, Missouri, passed away August 8, 2017 at home. Kevin was born December 16, 1995 to Kent Steven Baker and Lisa Michelle (Campbell) Baker in Blue Springs, Missouri. Kevin graduated from Holden High School in 2014. Kevin spent countless hours working in the shop proudly rebuilding his Dodge truck to perfection. Kevin worked along side his dad and brother in their family logging business. He was a hard worker and very skilled. A family trait going back to his dad and his grandpas. Kevin loved to play outdoors. He loved to hunt, fish, mushroom hunt and go mudding. Kevin was definitely a social butterfly. He had a contagious smile and charming personality. He could put a smile on anyone's face in the room and didn't know a stranger. He loved spending time with his friends.

Surviving his passing are his father Kent and mother Lisa, of the home; his brother Keith Baker of the home; Grandmother Louise Baker, Plano, Texas; Grandparents Kenneth and Donna Campbell, Overland Park, Kansas; numerous Aunts and Uncles, cousins, and a host of friends.

Kevin was preceded in death by his grandfather Kenneth Baker.

Memorial contributions can be made to Pisgah Cemetery in care of Ben Cast & Son-Wood Funeral Home. .

There will be a private Family Funeral Service on August 11, 2017 with a Celebration of Life get together for friends at Brian and Kay Dresel's home

918 NW 200 RD, Holden, Friday evening August 11, 2017 from 5:00pm to 8:00pm.

“ While I never met Kevin, I have recently met Lisa and feel that I know a little bit about the family. She is such a warm, caring person and I am quite sure her son, Kevin, had those same qualities. Please know that I think of you often and am certain you will find peace in the memories of Kevin and the deep love you felt for him during his time with you. Kevin will forever be in my heart as a member of my MOO MOO Kindergarten Herd. Once a member, always a member! I think of Kevin's family OFTEN. I continue to pray, daily, for their comfort and peace of mind. Praying hard that God will help them remember the cute, fun Kevin and that their hearts will feel less pain as the days go by. God bless you all!
