“I met Margaret a year ago when she warmly welcomed me to Forest Grove Baptist Church. She always had a hug and an "I love you" waiting for anyone who walked through the door. I was blessed to join a bible study Margaret taught and where she shared her life stories. She was quite the storyteller. She took me under her wing when I was struggling. Her faith in Jesus Christ was reflected in everything she did. She is now walking with Jesus and I can hardly wait to see her again. I am so blessed to have called her friend.

“Margaret was such a special person, one of a kind. I came to know her in the early 90's as she visited Holden Drug where I was employed. She was a joy to say the least. In recent years we reunited at Forest Grove, she was literally family to me. We sat together most every Sunday. She always greeted me with a huge hug and our goodbye's were "I love you, sweet girl" and I knew she did. She was genuine! I will dearly miss our talks, texts, funny memes but most of all I will miss her smile, hugs and her presence. You were blessed to have such a remarkable lady to call, mom, grandma, sister and aunt. My deepest condolences and love to you all. ~ Lori

“ Margaret was a good friend. I still wear a pair an air of cowboy boots she gave me about 20 years ago. She was an avid participant inmy Bible Study class at Gimba’s Bookstore. My condolences go out to all her family.
