“ Martha and I spoke frequently by phone when she worked at RSE and more recently through emails and text messages. I am thankful for her life and no more suffering for her. She was a friend and I will miss her, yet I know I will see her again one day.

When I visited her in her home, she told me the things she hated the most were not being able to be there for her parents and for her son and his family; especially not being able to see her grandson grow up. I like to think she now may be able to see more clearly than we do on this side of heaven.

For now, my heart goes out to her family and friends. May wonderful memories and the Lord Martha and I serve bring comfort in the days ahead.

*Love & prayers,
