Tribute Wall

“ I remember many times when I was a widow that Marvin would call me. He would be driving his semi over the road and I was a way to keep him awake and keep him from being bored. I really enjoyed those phone calls.

I'm sorry that I have not made the effort to stay close to him and Carol. After I remarried we went up to see them once, but not since then. You should never take family for granted, because you never know how long you will have with them.

May God grant peace and grace to Carol and the rest of his family.
