

Rachelle Camille Laudadio

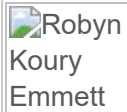

March 8, 1965 - August 18, 2018

Rachelle Camille Laudadio, 53, Knob Noster, passed away August 18, 2018 at her home in Knob Noster, Missouri. Rachelle was born March 8, 1965 to Frederick Koury and Camille (Skladany) Koury in Tacoma, Washington. She graduated from Wilson High School, Tacoma, WA in 1983. Rachelle worked as a office worker for a wholesale electrical supply company. She loved her children & grandbabies. She talked about them, thought about them & loved them every moment of every day. She was smart, loving, generous, kind always looking to the Heavens for knowledge & answers to life. Penelope, her rescue kitten, was her last love.

Surviving her passing are her father, Frederick and wife Virginia, Caldwell, Idaho; her mother Camille Knob Noster, Missouri; one son Jacob Laudadio, Tacoma, Washington; two daughters, Jessica Webber and husband Adam, Libby, Montana; Jeanelle Laudadio, Tacoma, Washington; three sisters, Robyn Emmett, Knob Noster, Missouri, Renee Sipes and husband Eddie, Tacoma, Washington, Regina Sender and husband Brian, McKinney, Texas, and four grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her brother in law Joseph Emmett. She will be terribly missed every single moment, of every single day.

“ *My beautiful Sissy, you were so very, very loved and cherished ♡♡♡
I am so grateful to had the time to show you all the love I possibly could. I know that you are with our Grandparents, with Joe and John, with all our loved ones and your sweet kitties that went before us ♡♡♡ I love you, I miss everything about you & I will see you again someday in Heaven... R.I.P. my beautiful love.*

I miss my beautiful daughter every single day. You were so much fun to have around and listen to and so incredibly smart. You were definitely your father's daughter and I loved you for that alone plus all your other wonderful attributes. You were beautiful and caring. I know you are in heaven because you couldn't possibly have gone anywhere else.
