“ Ralph was a good man. He was always respectful of the residents at Holden Manor and also the staff. I remember living at Magnolia and riding the school bus. Ralph, Joe, Sharon and Peggy were on our bus. They always had nice things to say to everyone. We will meet again one day when Jesus comes back for us all.

“ Ralph always greeted you with a smile and a warm 'hello'. A few times I had the pleasure of walking or riding bicycles around town with Ralph and family members. My heart is so very heavy with grief for his beautiful Mother Jewell and the whole family. My comfort is that Ralph is resting in the arms of his Savior, Jesus Christ and our Lord, who called him to eternal rest.
