

Richard Wilson Young III

October 24, 1960 - February 11, 2023

Richard Wilson Young III, 62 of rural Chilhowee, Missouri passed away unexpectedly at his home Saturday February 11, 2023. He was born in Millington, Tennessee on October 24, 1960 to Richard and Sara (Atkins) Young.

Richard joined the United States Navy in January of 1983 and served full time till September of 2003. He became a reserve until his Honorable Discharge in 2005. During his time in the military his primary specialties were Surface Communication Maintenance Technician and Communication Equipment Technician. He received many medals, ribbons, and commendations during his service to our country.

Richard came to Missouri in 2003 to meet Brenda Miller. It was not long after, that Missouri became his new home. He inherited all Brenda's family with open arms. He became dad, grandfather, brother, and uncle to the family members and friend to everyone who met him.

He had several hobbies such as grilling out, horseback riding, hunting, shooting, fishing, bonfires and a love of cats. He truly enjoyed spending time with Brenda and the family. Richard would do anything for anyone. He had a heart of gold. He had deep spiritual roots and was willing to share the Lord's word with anyone who would receive it. He will be deeply missed.

Richard is survived by his daughter Sara Young of Oxford, IN; brothers, John (Diane) Young of Florence, AL and Bill (BJ) Young of Pleasantview, TN; sister, Cathy (Art) Hall of Germantown, TN; grandchildren Olivia and Evelyn Crowder. His extended Missouri family includes his life partner and best friend Brenda Miller of the home; children Timothy (Misty) Miller of Chilhowee, MO and Jimmie (Casey) Miller Jr, of Holden, MO; grandchildren Alexis Miller and Kaylee Miller of Chilhowee, MO, Andrew Miller, Christopher Jewell and Mariah Jewell of Holden, MO, Breanna Sheets and Taylor Parton of St. Joseph, MO, Timothy Miller of Wathena, KS, and Hailey Arbogast of Higginsville, MO; many nieces and nephews, cousins and friends.

Preceding Richard in death were his parents Richard and Sara Young and one brother James Young.

There will be a Celebration of life on Saturday February 18, 2023 at 2PM at the Chilhowee Baptist Church, 101 Pennsylvania Ave., Chilhowee, MO 64733. Full Military Honors will be presented at the church immediately prior to the service. Online condolences may be left at www.castfuneralhome.com.

“ Richard was my life we had 20 plus years wonderful memories he completed me he was my other half he come to Missouri in 2003 we met his pen pals when he was stationed in Bahrain after talking for a year he came to Missouri to meet me in person and he never looked back other than to go to Kentucky and get a few of his things he had in storages he taught so many about the Lord always talked about his family his loving sister cathyHall. Brother John brother Bill and his younger brother Jim who lived with us several times throughout his time here on earth he was a caregiver for his brother his mother.sara young we all heard so many stories of his childhood from his pets that he had at home dogs and cats to his horse Gypsy to going hunting with his dad and brothers in the duck blinds he played baseball he was an awesome tennis player. He brought so many of my family members to Christ we bought so many Bibles and he would keep buying them he preach God's word throughout this country of Missouri they never met a better man a better father about her son a better brother uncle and an awesome grandpa he adopted all of my family he helped me care for my beautiful mother with Alzheimer's and dementia she loved him so much she always said he's a good man even when her disease was full-blown she never forgot him The smiles he would put on her face could light up a room or journey has ended and we thought it had just started God gained one handsome angel this is not the way it was supposed to end we were on a new journey getting ready to sell this farm and move to something smaller it was getting too much he was so happy the past 12 or 13 years to have his daughter back in his life talking on the phone or texting and a few times we got to FaceTime with his beautiful grandchildren in Indiana Olivia and Evelyn his eyes would light up his heart would skip a beat when his beautiful daughter would call him I wish that could have been everyday. Fly high my sailor rest in peace I know he's saving a seat for me God bless all who attended his celebration of life family and friends it was amazing he always told me nothing would be done for him I always told him baby you're so wrong but I felt I would go home long before him God has other plans I'm counting on him to lead me the way God bless you all for loving this man and giving him the *respect that was due to him for serving his country Love always “ Richard, my good brother, I love you so much and am enjoying sharing stories and catching up with with Sara. Like proof that you climbed to the top of our tree. The tale of you and Jim driving across the country to rescue me from Yellowstone. Too much to write here. I love you and continue to hold you in my heart.
