“ I am saddened to hear of the news of Robin’s passing. She was such a beautiful soul, she was always an Angel and now she has her wings. I pray for her family and closest friends who now have to live on without her. I pray that they can find comfort in the memories we have shared together that made things a little more easier, a little more fun, and a little more happier and enjoyable. May God welcome you into the Kingdom of Heaven and to eternal life. We will miss you until we meet again. John French
