“ I met Ruby when she was a resident of one of the local nursing homes, here in Warrensburg, and I was an employee.

She and I talked a lot about Charles (her husband). I wish I could have met him, too.

I will miss Ruby.

“ I remember going to see Ruby at nursing home. I am not sure she even remembered me but she wanted to talk about Charles, her children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren. I told her that we were suppose to lay our treasures up in heaven and she said I had most of my treasures her on earth. She was referring to Charles, Jr, Patricia and Karen Ann plus her grandchildren and great grandchildren. When I was ready to leave she wanted to know if she could kiss me on the cheek and I said okay. I will always remember her love for her family extended family and friends. She and Charles will always be a light in my life's journey.
