“ Steve was my little brother, literally. He was small of stature but big of heart. He knew how to do everything. He built a nice home and hobby farm on five acres in Holden MO with his wonderful wife, Vickie. When we were growing up around 41st & Troost in the 50s, Steve was a cute, ornery kid, and our tough mom kept him in line MOST of the time.

I knew Steve in the late '60's for a few years when I was a student at Southwest. He had a great sense of humor and at the time was living at 41st and Forest. After my Senior year we lost touch, yet I was happy to read of his success in work along with a loving family.
