“ She was a very nice lady. She always treated me with respect. When she came in Market Street Deli with her daughter and grandchild, I saw how much love she had for her daily. God bless

“ I worked with Theresa & her daughter at the Bank of Holden. Theresa was a lot of laughs and loved her sense of humor. She was so proud of the grandbabies and loved showing their pictures. She will be missed. I was so sorry to see she has passed on. Please accept my condolences.
