“ Val was a wonderful childhood friend! I have so many great memories from school together. I envied how smart she was. We were two peas in a pod at times. Often I spent the night and had lots of fun. I remember one time our Senior year we went shopping up north and bought matching plaid sweaters. What fun we had on our Senior Trip. After high school she married and I married and we parted ways, but nothing can take away childhood friendships. I regret in the last few years not seeing her more. She is missed and remembered. I can't wait to see her in Heaven!
