

Verlyn Alene Hursh

March 21, 1932 - August 2, 2023

Verlyn Alene Hursh, 91, died Wednesday August 2 at the Warrensburg Manor. She was born in 1932 in Rupert, Idaho to William Roy and Mary Elizabeth (Godfrey) Clark. A resident of Warrensburg for the better part of 80 years, she graduated from College High School in 1950 and had an associate degree from Graceland College in Lamoni, Iowa and bachelor's degree from Central Missouri State College. She married Floyd Hursh in 1955.

Verlyn taught for a year at a one room school in the Knob Noster district, north of Montserrat, and then taught in the Lamoni Elementary School while her husband attended Graceland College. In later years, she taught English as a Second Language in Warrensburg and at Whiteman AFB. She worked for her niece Bonnie Rich at The Flower Pedlar in Warrensburg and later owned and operated the business. She was also bookkeeper for her husband's business Floyd's Plumbing Service. An active member of the Community of Christ Church, she enjoyed singing and playing the organ. She gave piano lessons to many students over the years. In recent years she learned to play the dulcimer and was a member of The New Century Dulcimer Ensemble.

Verlyn was preceded in death by her parents; her sister, Melba Rich; niece, Jayne Clark; and her grandson, Nicholas Kidd. She is survived by her husband Floyd; daughter, Mary (Bradley) Kidd of Warrensburg; son Jonathan Hursh of Kansas City; granddaughters, Jaime (Damon) Clodfelter of Pleasant

Hill and Kelsey (James) Dooley of Warrensburg; great granddaughters, Aubrey and Everley Clodfelter and Emsley Dooley; her brother. Billy Clark of Warrensburg; and many beloved nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Visitation will be Friday, August 11 from 6-8 pm at the Warrensburg Community of Christ, 700 S. Mitchell St. A celebration of Verlyn's life will be held Saturday, August 12 at 10 am at the church. In lieu of flowers, the family requests contributions to the Warrensburg Community of Christ Congregation. Online condolences may be left at www.castfuneralhome.com
