“ I met Vickie many years ago when we were young teenagers. When I was dating her cousin Tom Meads she came with him to meet me. We hit it off right away. She was Beautiful inside and out. Had a Beautiful Smile and such wonderful laughter. She was fun loving. We had a lot of fun for a time. We loved each other.She became my family (cousin) when I married Tom .We always enjoyed our time together when we got together and would catch up. I will miss her and I'm sure her family and friends will.May your great memories with her comfort you now and in the days ahead. Prayers,Love and Hugs, .May she RIP.
