“ Share a memory, where to start? From my earliest days this woman showered me in love. She inhabits all of my earliest memories. She has not nor ever will pass away it is impossible. Her love became a part of me and is a part of me. She was the rare breed of Golden that showed unconditional love for those that carried the same torch of honesty, sincerity and un selfishness . She was keen and able to discern those that didn't. I am only now able to even contemplate that she will never kiss my face nor I hers again. But she kissed my heart and by doing so saved my life, showing me that true love is real and palatable . Love like hers is rare and had better be cherished as it is rare. I am a better man having had this woman in my life...she will always live with her spirit, humor and toughness as she is part of the deepest part of my soul.

“ I was honored to be named an honorary Golden Girl by Wanda, Donna and Debbie. Just being in the presence of these incredible sisters was a non-stop laugh fest. Wanda, like her sisters, was artistic, outspoken and she delighted in the outrageous. She loved her family and friends, and her absence is keenly felt by those of us who loved her. Today, my heart is with Debbie, Donna, Rhonda and Rena, Sandy and dear Grady. All of the extended Golden family is in my thoughts and prayers.

Rest in Paradise, Sweet Wanda.
