“ Brother Jean, I am so sorry to hear of the passing of Wilma. I have many fond memories of vacation bible school at Mission Baptist Church at Washburn when you were pastor there. We have some pictures taken of those bible schools and there was a lot of people in attendance. May God bless and comfort you and your family at this time. Danny Dalton

“ I have so many fun memories of spending time with Wilma, she could make you laugh when there was little to laugh about. She loved the Lord and was quick to share her testimony. My love and prayers are there with Jean, Donna and all of the family. May God be very near you during this time. A cousin, Bonnie Hemphill Long
